	Roswell Rotary Takes Opioid Crisis Head On! by Karens Schwank It is an astomiding fact that over 2 million people are addicted to pain pills.Four in five wheroin users started out by misusing prescription pain killers.Georgia is among the top 11 states with the most prescription opioid deaths.In Fulton County, 593 people died from an opioid overdoen in the last five years. The statistic concerning this epidemic are too incredible to ignore. Many Rotary projects have begun with a single person asking a single question: What are we going to do about this? It was about one year ago that North Fulton Rotary Club president. Mike Mudd reached out to area Rotary Clubs to ask what actions their clubs were taking with the opioid epidemic. Roswell Rotary president Lisa Carliels was among those to answer, finore)
