Upcoming Program

Jocelyn Dorsey to Visit the Sandy Springs Rotary Club on September 30th

On September 30th of 2019, The Rotary Club of Sandy Springs is welcoming Jocelyn Dorsey to the microphone. Jocelyn is a prominent member of the Atlanta community & former channel 2 WSB-TV Director of Editorials and Public Affairs.

Here is a quick read about our guest speaker:

Jocelyn retired from Channel 2 WSB-TV after 45 years of service. She had been the Director of Editorials & Public Affairs at Channel 2 since 1983. From 1973-83, Jocelyn was an anchor/reporter/producer and assignment editor for WSB-TV's Channel 2 Action News. In fact, she was the first African-American anchor of a Channel 2 newscast as well as the first African American news anchor in the Atlanta market.

Jocelyn was also Executive Producer and regular contributor to People 2 People, a weekly half-hour public affairs program broadcast on Channel 2.

In her management role, she supervised the selection, creation, and marketing efforts for all special events and community outreach programs for the Family 2 Family Project, WSB-TV community service projects, and WSB-TV & Radio Tours. In addition, Jocelyn was a producer, writer, editor, and narrator for various non-profit organization videos.

Among her personal honors; Jocelyn was recognized on the floor of the U.S. House of Representatives, by several members of the Georgia Congressional Delegation for her induction into the Georgia Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame. She has also been issued special proclamations by The Atlanta City Council and the Fulton County Board of Commissioners both for her years of service as well as retirement.

Jocelyn has won numerous other awards for her work with WSB-TV, including seven Southeast Regional EMMYS for Editorial Excellence from the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NAT AS). She was the first African-American inducted into the same organization's Silver Circle, for more than 25 years in the field of journalism. She was also the first woman and first African-American to receive the Georgia Association of Broadcasters (GAB) Broadcaster's Citizen of the Year Award, a lifetime -

Her active and Advisory Board affiliations include; UNICEF USA, The Trust for Public Land, Thanks Mom & Dad Fund , Sisters By Choice, The Children's Restoration Network, AG Rhodes Board of Advisors, Communities in Schools Atlanta Advisory Board, and the Atlanta Victim's Assistance Board.

She is a member of Leadership Atlanta Class of 1989 (the best class ever!)

Jocelyn is the mother of two sons, the late Teo Gebre-Hiwet and Robert-Fassil Gebre-Hiwet. Jocelyn is a NANA four times over.

In 2007, Jocelyn tackled one of her biggest bucket list items ever, as an avid motorcyclist, riding her first Harley Davidson from Fairbanks, Alaska to Key West, Florida, 7,688 miles in 21 days, as an Iron Torch Rider to help raise $250,000.00 for Special Olympics of Georgia.

The Rotary Club of Sandy Springs offers everyone a chance to please come out to visit, meet and ask questions.

And to from the RCSS members, we'd like to offer Jocelyn our warmest welcome.
