Last Week: Police Chief of Brookhaven—Human Trafficking

The Rotary Club of Tucker welcomes Gary Yandura, Police Chief of the Brookhaven Police Department. He spoke to the club on Human Trafficking. Human Trafficking is a violation of a person's civil rights. It is tantamount to modern day slavery. It is manifested in the form of sex slavery--- commercial sex acts that are initiated by force, fraud or coercion. Human trafficking is widely perpetrated against young children, teenagers, men and women. The average of victims is 14 years old. Often the victims are runaways, picked up at bus stops and MARTA stations by predators who lure them into this lifestyle. This is a multi-million dollar business. Atlanta and the metropolitan areas are among the top cities for sex trafficking. Chief Yandura spoke of the challenges that law enforcement experiences in arresting traffickers, identifying victims and educating the public about the dangers of human trafficking.

Bill Dowden leads the Pledge of Allegiance with an American Flag given to him by the father of an Air Force Colonel. The Colonel flew combat in Iraq. The flag was given in recognition of Bill's service to the Patriot Guard.
